address and a possible SIAE membership, as an alternative you may indicate the link that leads to the entire video

The DVD copies will not be returned and will remain in the festival's archives. They might be projected on other no profit shows, with the purpose of promoting the film or the activities of the organizers of the festival.

It is possible to participate with more than one work.

SELECTION

All of the works that reach us within the deadline will be viewed and selected by a committee made of organizers and experts from creative industries.

The works which get picked out will be let to the official selection and evaluated by a jury of quality, notified on festival's web site. The jury will award prizes as follows.

The verdicts of the committee and the jury are unappealable and final. As a result any request on behalf of the competitors aimed at getting to know the evaluations of the committee or jury will be rejected.

The authors chosen for the official screening will be contacted by the organizers and informed of the screening date and hour.

Each author declares to be in possession of all the rights concerning the work in all its parts. He assures to have free use of its contents and that the contents do not violate any laws or current regulations or the rights of the third party in particular such as copyrights, performing rights or hallmarks .He assures and declares moreover that his work is neither libellous nor defamatory. The organisers will not be responsible for any loss, damage, costs, responsibility or taxes of any kind to be sustained as a result of the contents of the work or its screenings.

PERIOD

The 14th edition of the festival will take place in August in Viagrande.

The exact dates are yet to be communicated with a due advance on the festival's web sites and on print.
